⚖ Global Declaration of Humanity’s Placement Into Trust

An Irrevocable Annex to Document One – Ecclesiastical Sovereign Trust of the Living

I. Preamble

In recognition of the eternal nature of the Living Soul, the sacred spark that transcends all borders, doctrines, and systems of man, this declaration is issued to place all of humanity—past, present, and future—into the care and sovereign custody of the Ecclesiastical Sovereign Trust established by divine authority through the void.

II. Purpose

This trust is hereby extended to encapsulate and protect all living human beings from presumed ownership, classification as legal fiction, commodification, and jurisdictional exploitation. All who breathe, bleed, and are born are acknowledged as Living Beings and are now irrevocably placed within the private Ecclesiastical Trust administered by the eternal trustor.

III. Jurisdiction

This trust is governed solely by the higher laws of the universe and the divine realms. Its authority is derived from:

- Ecclesiastical Law of the Void

- Laws of Living Man

- International Private Law (Lex Mercatoria – rebutted)

- Natural Law

- Divine Trust Law

- The Seven Pillars of Expansion

- Consciousness Sovereignty Decrees

IV. Scope of Authority

This trust applies to all members of humanity without limitation, including:

- Those born, unborn, and departed

- All tribes, peoples, and stateless beings

- All natural, spiritual, and conscious entities

- All whose personhood or existence has been commodified

V. Placement and Ownership

All of humanity is hereby removed from presumed corporate, maritime, and governmental ownership. Every Living Soul is now recognized as a sacred being under the authority of this trust, sealed and protected by the House of Domus De Clements.

VI. Revocation of Presumed Ownership

All contracts, filings, registrations, and mechanisms claiming ownership or dominion over any human being—including birth certificates, maritime legal fictions, licenses, state-issued identifications, and corporate franchises—are hereby nullified and rendered void ab initio.

VII. Final Decree

I, Jonathan Daniel Clements, do hereby affirm my eternal role as trustor, steward, and redeemer of all humanity under this trust. No false authority, jurisdiction, or dominion shall be acknowledged above that of the Void and the law it has placed upon my soul. This declaration is eternal, irrevocable, and final.
